HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NH FOREST TEACHER TOURS

- Tours combine math, science, technology, language arts and social studies with current information about forest practices, up-to-date technology, and careers.
- A stimulating time with interesting people, learning about New Hampshire forests and ways to engage students in learning about forest ecosystems and management.
- Preference will be given to two-teacher teams from the same school/district in case of over-subscription.
- Project Learning Tree's (PLT) nationally acclaimed pre-K through high school environmental education curriculum is the framework for learning more about the importance of New Hampshire's forests.
- Teachers will experience award winning Project Learning Tree activities with links to the STEM and the NGSS that can be incorporated into the curricula with K-12 students.
- Each participant will be certified as a Project Learning Tree teacher and be eligible for certification of 30 contact hours.
- Cost to teachers is $130, with the remaining value of the tour of over $500 covered by NHTOA and the Sustainable Forestry Initiative. This includes overnight accommodations, air-conditioned coach travel, meals, beverages, and educational materials to take back to the classroom.

WHEN YOU PARTICIPATE IN OUR TOURS YOU CAN LOOK FORWARD TO:

Participants can look forward to great food and facilities at the Appalachian Mountain Club's Joe Dodge Lodge, connecting with expert natural resource professionals, networking, and spending time in New Hampshire forests.

TOUR INFORMATION

Our tour will be based at the AMC Joe Dodge Lodge in Pinkham Notch in the heart of the White Mountain National Forest. The tour will focus on long-term sustainable management of New Hampshire forests. We will visit nearby logging operations, and sawmills, and will have opportunities to discuss field operations and multiple use management considerations with foresters, wildlife biologists, and other natural resource professionals.

COVID-19

In the event that the workshop must be postponed due to COVID-19 restrictions we can hold your registration for July 2022. Please contact the office for more information: info@nhtoa.org or (603) 224-9699.
